

Your first meeting, sorted.

A free starter kit to go with “Scheduling a book club that actually holds.” Print it, and everything below fits on one page you can hand out.

BEFORE THE MEETING

- ☐ Pick a short, fun first book (under ~300 pages, hard to put down).
- ☐ Lock the date, time, and place, then share your club’s invite link.
- ☐ Collect RSVPs so you know how many chairs to set out.
- ☐ Prep three or four discussion questions (there are ten below).
- ☐ Sort out snacks and enough seating for everyone to sit in a circle.

THE NIGHT ITSELF · ~90 MIN

Arrival and settling: drinks, snacks, hellos	10-15 min
Quick introductions plus a light icebreaker	10 min
The discussion (use the questions below)	40-50 min
Choose the next book: put it to a vote	10 min
Set the next date before anyone stands up	5 min

Icebreakers, if folks don’t all know each other:

What’s a book you’d happily reread every year?

What made you want to join a book club now?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR ANY BOOK

- 1 In one word, how did this book leave you feeling?
- 2 What was going through your head when you closed the last page?
- 3 Which character did you most want to shake by the shoulders?
- 4 Who did you relate to more than you wanted to admit?
- 5 Did the ending earn itself, or did it cheat?
- 6 What do you think the author was really trying to say?
- 7 Did the book change your mind about anything, even slightly?
- 8 Was there a sentence or passage you stopped and reread just because it was good?
- 9 Did any part of this book hit closer to home than you expected?
- 10 Keep it, gift it, or donate it?
